The Royal Charter

The Scout Association exists by authority of a Royal Charter, granted by King George V in 1912 and supplemented by further Charters granted by King George VI and Queen Elizabeth II.

These Charters give authority to the Bye Laws of the Association, which are approved by Her Majesty's Privy Council.

The Bye Laws, in turn, authorise the making of rules for the regulation of the Association's affairs, and thereby give authority for the Rules printed in Policy, Organisation and Rules.

The Patron

Her Majesty The Queen is the Patron of The Scout Association.

The President

His Royal Highness The Duke of Kent is the President of The Scout Association.

The Council of The Scout Association

The Scout Association is governed by a Council of between 300 and 500 members as determined by the Royal Charter of 1912 and the Supplemental Royal Charters of 1949, 1959, 1967 and 1991.

The Council appoints the Chief Scout, who becomes the Chairman of the Council.

Membership of the Council

The Council consists of:

Ex-officio members

- The President

- The Chief Scout
- The Treasurer
- The Deputy Chief Scout[s]
- The Chief Executive
- The International Commissioner
- The Chairmen of the national boards of the Association
- Any person holding appointment as a Chief Commissioner or a national Commissioner
- The County Commissioners of the United Kingdom
- The Chairman and Members of the Board of Trustees

Nominated Members

Each Scout County and each Overseas Branch may nominate members to the Council.

Each County or Overseas Branch may have one Nominated Member for every 10,000 Members or part thereof declared by the County or Branch at the time of the annual census taken prior to the nomination.

A Nominated Member serves for three years unless another is nominated in the member's place.

Salaried officials employed by County Scout Councils may be nominated, but persons in the full-time employment of Headquarters are not eligible for nomination.

Nominated Youth Representative

Each Scout County may nominate one youth representative to the Council.

The Nominated Youth Representative must be a Member or Associate Member of the Association in the nominating County.

On nomination the representative must have passed their 18th birthday but not reached their 24th birthday at the date of the annual census.

A Nominated Youth Representative serves for three years unless another representative is nominated in the representative's place or until the date of the Annual Census following the representative's 25th birthday.

Salaried officials employed by County Scout Councils may be nominated, but persons in the full-time employment of Headquarters are not eligible for nomination.

Elected Members

The Council may include up to sixty other persons of whom not more than three may be full-time employees of The Scout Association.

These Members are elected by the Council at the Annual General Meeting of the Council.

Elected Members serve for three years.

The Board of Trustees of The Scout Association

The Board of Trustees exists to manage the business of the Association in accordance with the Bye Laws of the Association.

It is the body, which makes the Policy and Rules of the Association as published in Policy, Organisation and Rules and in the various handbooks and other official literature of the Association.

Membership of the Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees consists of:

Ex-officio members

- Chief Scout or Deputy Chief Scout (but not both); and
- Chief Executive.

Elected members

Nine Members or Associate Members of the Association (one each from Northern Ireland, Scotland, Wales and three from northern England and three from southern England) elected at an Annual General Meeting of the Council.

Elected Members are elected for a period of three years.

Elected Youth Members

Three youth Members or Associate Members of the Association elected by the Council at an Annual General Meeting of the Council Elected Youth Members are elected for a period of three years.

Appointed Members

The Chairman of the Board, the Treasurer and up to three other persons who need not be, at the time of their nomination, Members or Associate Members of the Association, provided always that those so nominated accept to become at least Associate Members on their appointment by the Council at an Annual General Meeting.

Appointed Members are appointed for a period of three years.

Attending Members

The Secretary, who shall not have a vote.

Right of Attendance

The Chief Scout and any Deputy Chief Scouts [if they are not Trustees], Chief Commissioners [including the International Commissioner], the UK Commissioners for Programme and Adult Support, Regional Commissioners, County Commissioners and County Chairmen have the right of attendance without vote at meetings of the Trustee Board and may put forward matters for discussion on giving fourteen days' notice to the Secretary of the Board.

Sub-Committees of the Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees delegates certain powers to five sub-Committees:

- The Finance Committee;
- The Operations Committee;
- Risk Assurance Committee
- The Nominations Committee
- Staffing, Salary and Remuneration Committee

The membership and terms of reference of these sub-Committees is determined by the Board of Trustees. Two or more members of the Board of Trustees must serve on each.

Chairmen of sub-Committees are appointed for a three year term by the Board of Trustees subject to them remaining as trustees and a satisfactory annual performance review.

Other National Groups

The Committees are advised by national groups appointed from time to time with the approval of the Board of Trustees.

The membership and terms of reference of each board or group is determined by the Board of Trustees or by a sub-committee under its delegated powers.

The Country Scout Councils of Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales

These Scout Councils exist to advise their respective Chief Commissioners in all matters relating to the exercise of the Commissioner's discretionary powers as specified by Headquarters, and to perform such administrative and executive duties as may be delegated to them by Headquarters, which may include management of their financial affairs. Headquarters makes and approves constitutions for Country Scout Councils in order to facilitate the performance of delegated duties.

Northern Ireland Under the Scout Constitution for Northern Ireland the affairs of The Scout Association are under the charge of The Northern Ireland Scout Council, with a Committee for the management of its business. Under the authority of Headquarters, Northern Ireland Headquarters is the body responsible for matters of programme, training and administration in Northern Ireland.

Northern Ireland has separate legal and educational systems and its own system of local government.

Certain Rules concerning trusteeship, property and charitable status therefore do not apply in Northern Ireland without modification.

Scotland^{SV} Under the Scout Constitution for Scotland, the affairs of The Scout Association are under the charge of The Scottish Council of The Scout Association, with a committee for the management of its business. Under the authority of Headquarters, Scottish Headquarters is the body responsible for matters of programme, training and administration in Scotland.

Scotland has separate legal and educational systems and its own system of local government.

Certain Rules concerning trusteeship, property and charitable status therefore do not apply in Scotland without modification.

Wales Scouting in Wales is supported by the Welsh Scout Council. Headquarters in London undertakes for it many of the functions of a Country Headquarters. Scout Counties in Wales are known as Areas.

The Overseas Branches of the Association

Branches of The Scout Association are established in certain territories overseas, with local Chief Scouts and Chief Commissioners.

Their constitutions are granted by Headquarters and may be withdrawn at its discretion.

Variations to the Rules of the Association may be sanctioned by Headquarters to suit the local circumstances of an Overseas Branch.

The International Commissioner is responsible to the UK Chief Commissioner for the efficiency and well-being of Scouting in Overseas Branches and for relations with Scout Associations in Commonwealth Countries.

British Scouting Overseas

In a number of countries throughout the world there are British Scout Groups, which are registered by The Scout Association. They are under the Leadership of the Area Commissioner for British Scouting Overseas who is appointed by Headquarters under the recommendation of the International Commissioner. The Area Commissioner is responsible to the International Commissioner.

The Area receives appropriate support by Headquarters as agreed by the Area Commissioner.

Companies and Trusts Associated with The Scout Association

Scout Shops Limited is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Scout Association. It is primarily involved in supporting the parent charity through the sourcing and distribution of merchandise (such as the supply of uniform, badges, resources, souvenirs and camping equipment). All profits generated are returned to the Association via gift aid.

World Scout Shop Ltd is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Scout Association which is operated under licence from World Scouting. Its primary objective is the efficient sourcing and distribution of World Scout branded merchandise to the global Scouting audience. All profits generated are returned to the Association via gift aid

The Scout Association Trust Corporation (SATC) is a company limited by guarantee and operates with its own separate Board of Directors. Its powers and constitution are stated in its Memorandum and Articles of Association. It was created to ease the administrative burden faced by Scout Units in having to find/appoint/retain local individual Holding Trustees to hold title to their land and to also ensure consistency by holding important land documentation securely in a central location. Where appointed, the SATC can hold title to freehold, leasehold and long-term Licence land interests as a sole Custodian Trustee on behalf of Scout Units registered with The Scout Association in the United Kingdom (excepting Scotland and Northern Ireland). It can also hold title to land held jointly by Scout and Guide Units. As Custodian Trustee, whilst the SATC will be a party and signatory to any substantive land documentation, it cannot and does not have any responsibility for the management of a Scout Unit or its land. This responsibility remains vested in the Scout Unit's local Executive Committee who also act as the Charity Trustees.

Scout Services Limited is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Scout Association whose principal activity is that of sponsorship and marketing services for The Association and other commercial activities, including both Gilwell Park and Baden Powell House Scout Conference Centres, and Scouting Magazine. All profits generated are returned to the Association via gift aid.

Scout Insurance (Guernsey) Limited is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Scout Association whose principal activity is that of a 'captive' insurance company registered in Guernsey. Its purpose is to undertake certain insurance business on behalf of the Scout Movement and thus, to a certain extent, protect the Movement from premium rates applicable to the general insurance market. The premiums charged can be related more directly to the risks involved in Scout activities instead of having to follow the open market rates.

Scout Insurance Services Limited (trading as Unity) is The Scout Association's dedicated insurance broker providing insurance support to the Association and to the Scout Movement in the UK. Unity arranges liability insurance and personal accident and medical expenses cover for The Scout Association and its Members. Unity provides additional specialist insurance cover that Groups, Districts, Counties and campsites may need. Scout Insurance Services Limited is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority, and as a wholly owned subsidiary of The Scout Association all profits generated are returned to the Association via gift aid.

Girlguiding

The Scout Association and Girlguiding, although separate organisations, share a common Founder and have similar aims, principles and methods. Co-operation between the two organisations is encouraged at all times and at all levels.

Rule 6.1 National Scout Active Support Units

- a. The UK Commissioner for Adult Support may form National Scout Active Support Units.
- b. Applications to form a National Scout Active Support Unit are made to the UK Commissioner for Adult Support.
- c. The purpose of National Scout Active Support Units is to provide active support to Scouting at a national level.

- d. All adult-only support groups linked to Scouting at a national level must be registered as National Scout Active Support Units.
- e. The UK Commissioner for Adult Support may delegate another national appointee to act as the responsible Commissioner to support the activities and development of a National Scout Active Support Unit, to agree and review the service agreement, and to maintain effective liaison between Headquarters and the National Scout Active Support Unit.
- f. Each National Scout Active Support Unit is led by a National Scout Active Support Manager who is responsible for ensuring that the Unit meets its service agreement. One or more National Scout Active Support Co-ordinators may be appointed to assist in the running of the Unit. All appointments of National Scout Active Support Unit Managers and Co-ordinators will take place through arrangements nominated by the UK Commissioner for Adult Support.
- g. Subject in all cases to a satisfactory Personal Enquiry (see Rule 3.26), membership of a National Scout Active Support Unit is open to any person aged 18 or over, including:
- i. those holding other appointments in Scouting, who will be expected to give priority to the duties of these local appointments;
 - ii. Scout Network Members, who will be expected to give priority to their Scout Network.
- h. The National Scout Active Support Manager must be a Member of the Association. All members of a National Scout Active Support Unit must be at least Associate Members. They may also become Members by making the Scout Promise.
- i. A National Scout Active Support Unit is responsible for providing active support in accordance with its service agreement, agreed annually with the UK Commissioner for Adult Support or nominee.
- j. The following minimum standards are laid down for National Scout Active Support Units:
- There must be an appointed National Scout Active Support Manager.
 - A National Scout Active Support Unit must provide active support to Scouting on a national level, as detailed in the service agreement.
 - A National Scout Active Support Unit must comply with the operational procedures agreed with the UK Commissioner for Adult Support or nominee.
- k. If a National Scout Active Support Unit fails to reach the minimum standards for two consecutive years, it may be closed by the UK Commissioner for Adult Support (acting together with the International Commissioner/UK Commissioner (Programme) if appropriate), with the approval of the Operations Committee.
- l. If a National Scout Active Support Unit fails to reach the minimum standard for three years it must be closed.

Rule 6.2 UK Scout Network

a. Admission to Membership

- i. Explorer Scouts who turn 18 years of age will automatically become Members of the District Scout Network. Exceptionally, where there is no District Scout Network but a County Scout Network or equivalent operates, they will automatically become Members of the County Scout Network or equivalent.
- ii. Members of District Scout Networks, and County Scout Networks or equivalents where exceptions have been made, are also members of the UK Scout Network.
- iii. Members with no District affiliation, either by being a Member of a District Scout Network or having another role, can choose to be a Member of the UK Scout Network only. Should a Member of the UK Scout Network subsequently choose to join a District Scout Network, or take on another role in a District, they will be affiliated with that District.
- iv. The decision to admit anyone to membership of the UK Scout Network rests with the District Scout Network Commissioner or the UK Scout Network Commissioner if they are not affiliated with a District.
- v. All Members must satisfactorily complete a 'Personal Enquiry' (unless otherwise stipulated).

b. Transfer of membership

- i. If a Member of the UK Scout Network also joins a local Scout Network, the UK Scout Network Commissioner should inform the District Scout Network Commissioner and/or Assistant County Commissioner Scout Network of the County into which the Member is joining.

c. Management of the UK Scout Network

- i. The UK Scout Network is managed by a team of its Members and a UK Scout Network Commissioner acting together. The UK Scout Network Team is accountable to the UK Scout Network Commissioner for the satisfactory running of the UK Scout Network.
- ii. The UK Scout Network should provide opportunities for Members to take part in the decision making process through the UK Scout Network Team who will encourage and support participation in the programme and develop projects for all Members.

d. UK Scout Network Commissioner role

- i. The UK Scout Network Commissioner is responsible to the Deputy UK Commissioner for Programme (14-25).
- ii. The functions of the appointment are to:
 - Ensure that the UK Scout Network operates;
 - Provide technical advice on the operations of the UK Scout Network;
 - Support the UK Scout Network Team
 - Encourage participation in the programme and projects devised by the UK Scout Network and other Scout Networks.

e. Responsibility for the Programme in the UK Scout Network

- i. A UK Scout Network Commissioner, working with the UK Scout Network Team, is responsible for the detailed programme and projects undertaken by the UK Scout Network.

- ii. Members of the UK Scout Network should play a leading role in organising projects to facilitate participation in the programme, and where possible, take responsibility for supporting projects by seeking to volunteer with the UK Scout Network Team.
